FOR BOOK REVIEWERS

Please include in the review the following information:

- What the book is about
- If a purpose has been stated, how well it has been achieved
- How well it is written
- How well the publication is set out, including illustrations, maps, fonts
- Whether it grabs and maintains the reader's attention
- To whom it is likely to appeal
- If applicable, where it stands in relation to other works in the field

Please keep to a minimum digressions and observations unrelated to the book itself.

Word length is flexible, 300 to 750 range, although longer reviews are best reserved only for books of the highest quality.

The header should follow the format of recent numbers, including in order, title, author, publisher, place, date, pagination, illus (if relevant), rrp.
